

Gender Equality Week

Sun 23 – Sat 29 June is Gender Equality Week, and the month of June is Pride Month.

The “Basic Act for a Gender Equal Society” was enacted in Japan on 23 June 1999, and the week starting 23 June each year has become Gender Equality Week. The month of June is also internationally recognized as Pride Month, and initiatives are carried out to expand the rights of sexual and gender minorities. Why not take this opportunity to think about gender equality, as well as sexual and gender diversity?
