

Regarding Notice of Current Status for Child Allowance and Medical Expense Subsidies for Single-Parent Households, Etc.

The City of Shizuoka will send out instruction letters to recipients required to submit a Notice of Current Status (現況届, genkyo todoke) on Monday 2 June.

We will be confirming whether certain recipients meet the requirements to keep receiving the Child Allowance (児童手当, jido teate) or exceptional benefits (特例給付, tokurei kyufu) for June onwards. Those who receive letters must submit their Notice of Current Status by Monday 30 June.

*Those whose current status can be confirmed by the City using public ledgers are not required to submit a notice.

Child Allowance and exceptional benefits for April and May will be transferred on Friday 13 June.

The transfer may be made in July or later depending on application period.

Medical Expense Subsidies for Single-Parent Households, Etc.

The city subsidizes medical fees occurring from health-insurance-covered medical treatments of single parent households and households with parentless children that were exempt from income tax in 2024. Application is required in order to receive these subsidies.
